Howard Livingston

& the Mile Marker 24 Band

milemarker24.com myspace.com/milemarker24

Direct from the Florida Keys, this group is your one stop island beach party. Their music is unmistakable with crisp harmonies that combine the sounds of the tropics, rock and roll, and country that are sure to entertain everyone. Bringing not only the music but also the props, the sound, and the atmosphere to make your event an island paradise everyone will remember. Howard and the group are very interactive with audiences of all ages so everyone becomes part of the show. Their professional staff also handles every detail to assure everything is a turnkey event for their clients. Their state of the art sound systems are also available for everything from Main Stage to Beer Gardens.

Howard Livingston and the Mile Marker 24 Band have been featured on Good Morning America, The Early Show, The Today Show, and Samantha Brown's Passport to a Great Weekend on the Travel Channel.

Touring more than 20 states per year they have enjoyed opportunities playing at venues with the likes of America, Little River Band, Tim McGraw, Hank Williams, Jr., Keith Urban, Mac McAnally, Cowboy Troy, and Big and Rich. Howard and the band have released 5 albums and have won many awards including Song of the Year for their "Blame It On The Margaritas".

Livingston being inducted into The Navy Of The Conch Republic as a musical ambassador for the Florida Keys.

Livingston is a regular guest on several Keys radio stations including US-1 Radio and Conch County.

Tropical Flavor

Livingston's self released fifth album, "Living On An Island" shares the wonders of island life and the joys of touring the US performing with his 'best friends', along with the joys of returning home when they turn that tour bus south.

*"I used to wear a three piece suit and wing tip shoes
I'd watch CNN and catch up on all the news
I don't do that anymore, and my life is so complete
I traded in those leather shoes for these flip flops on my feet.
- "Local On The Eights" (from Blame It On The Margaritas)*
